Kansas Humanities Council Announces Grant Opportunities for 2009

Topeka – The Kansas Humanities Council (KHC) announces grant opportunities available to Kansas non-profits in spring, summer, and fall of 2009. Humanities and Heritage grants are designed to connect people with ideas and to strengthen community through book and film discussion series, oral history projects, or museum exhibitions. Grant guidelines can be found at www.kansashumanities.org. Deadlines for grants are: March 6, June 12, or October 16.

For more information about Kansas Humanities Council grants, visit www.kansashumanities.org or call 785/357-0359.

A non-profit organization with over 35 years experience, the Kansas Humanities Council conducts and supports community-based programs, serves as a financial resource through an active grant-making program, and encourages Kansans to participate in their communities.
