Dust Bowl Traveling Exhibit

Thursday, June 19-Sunday, June 22

10 AM-4 PM

Location: Watkins Community Museum of History, 1047 Massachusetts Street

In the 1930s, the Farm Security Administration (FSA) photographed the faces and landscape of the Dust Bowl. Forty years later, Nebraska photographer Bill Ganzel found and re-photographed the survivors for a book and exhibition. The Dust Bowl exhibit, from Humanities Texas, combines the FSA photographs with Ganzel's images to tell a story of strength and triumph in the face of despair.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 18

Iconic Images

High School workshop presented by Ann Dean

1 PM

Location: Watkins Community Museum of History, 1047 Massachusetts Street
1930s photographers, like Dorothea Lange, captured the hardship and despair of the Great Depression in images that are still powerful today. Aspiring high school photographers will study local images from the 1930s and will create their own iconic modern-day photographs. Cameras provided. Pre-registration required; contact the Lawrence CVB at 785-856-5284 or marketing@visitlawrence.com for more information.

Meet the Chautauquans

7 PM

Location: East side of South Park gazebo, 12th and Massachusetts Street
Meet the Chautauquans, see a preview of upcoming activities, and enjoy the music of the Lawrence City Band.

THURSDAY, JUNE 19

Agriculture Then and Now

Presented by Patrick McGinnis

10:30 AM

Location: Lawrence Visitor Information Center, 402 N. 2nd Street
Today's family farm looks much different than the farms of our grandparents and great-grandparents. During the 1930s, New Deal farm policies changed traditional farming practices and the role of government in agriculture. This workshop will examine why these policies were introduced and how they affected rural communities.

Will Rogers: Film and American Society

Presented by Doug Watson

Location: Lawrence Visitor Information Center, 402 N. 2nd Street
From 1929-1935, Will Rogers made 21 "talkies." These movies, filled with Rogers' trademark wit, wisdom, and an optimistic vision of American society, were extremely popular. They also provide insight into social topics from the time period such as new wealth, rural distress, political and economic corruption. This workshop examines how Rogers' movies informed Americans about complex issues. Can the same be said about today's movies?

4/28/08

Huey Long and State Innovation

Presented by Fred Krebs

3 PM

Location: Lawrence Visitor Information Center, 402 N. 2nd

Huey Long was innovative in his approach as Governor of Louisiana from 1928-1932. He worked to create laws that would make life easier and more equitable for the people. This workshop will examine Long's work as a reformer in his home state. How did his ideas effect change in Louisiana and the nation?

Concessions ($)

5:30-7:30 PM

Location: South Park, 12th and Massachusetts Streets, adjacent to Chautauqua tent

Snacks and drinks available from local vendors.

Will Rogers

7 PM

Location: Chautauqua Tent, South Park, 12th and Massachusetts Street

Franklin D. Roosevelt

7:30 PM

Location: Chautauqua Tent, South Park, 12th and Massachusetts Street

Franklin D. Roosevelt (Patrick E. McGinnis) chats about his New Deal programs and his plans to put the nation back on track.

FRIDAY, JUNE 20

Dear Eleanor, Dear Laura

Youth Workshop presented by Jane Johnston

10-11:30 AM

Location: Lawrence Public Library, 707 Vermont Street

If you could write a letter to the First Lady of the United States, what would you write? During the Great Depression of the 1930s, children from all over the country sent letters to First Lady Eleanor Roosevelt. In the letters, children asked Mrs. Roosevelt for everything from a pair of roller skates to food for their family. Participants in this workshop will become historians-in-training as they research the letters and learn about the 1930s. At the end of the workshop, they will write a letter to First Lady Laura Bush.

4/28/08

Crisis and the role of the Demagogue

Presented by Fred Krebs

10:30 AM

Location: Lawrence Visitor Information Center, 402 N. 2nd Street

A demagogue can be defined by a leader who champions the cause of the common people or a leader who makes use of popular prejudices and false claims and promises in order to gain power. So - was Huey Long a demagogue? Participants in this workshop will consider what leadership meant to politician Huey Long. Clips will be shown of Roseen's 1949 film "All the King's Men," a fictitious account of Long's life.

Brown Bag Lunch – Art & the Dust Bowl-era

Presented by Kate Meyer

Noon

Location: Watkins Community Museum of History, 1047 Massachusetts Street

Examine the art of the era and how life imitates art, or is it the other way around? Bring a brownbag lunch to enjoy.

What Do Historians Say?

Presented by Patrick McGinnis

1 PM

Location: Lawrence Visitor Information Center, 402 N. 2nd Street

In 1932 during his presidential campaign, Franklin Delano Roosevelt introduced his New Deal ideas. Historians differ on the interpretation of the impact and legacy of these relief programs. This workshop will explore many interpretations and give participants the opportunity to discuss how the image of FDR changes with the perspective presented.

Radio in the Thirties

Presented by Tonia Compton

3 PM

Location: Lawrence Visitors Center, 402 N. 2nd Street

Radio in the 1930s changed the ways Americans learned about the world around them. Used by FDR, Huey Long, Will Rogers, and Aimee Semple McPherson as a new way to reach the American public, this workshop will include samples of popular shows. Workshop participants will analyze radio's impact on cultural, political, and social changes of the 1930s. How does today's technology influence American society?

Concessions ($)

5:30-7:30 p.m.

Presented by Matt Veatch, State Archivist and Asst. Division Director for the Kansas State Historical Society

9 AM

Location: Lawrence Public Library, 707 Vermont Street

Enjoy a continental breakfast and a chance to meet and mingle with the Chautauquans. After breakfast, stay for a presentation about the Kansas Emergency Relief Committee and the film documentation of its work during the Great Depression.

Floods, FEMA & the Faithful: Religious Organizations' Relief Efforts in the Wake of Disasters

Presented by Tonia Compton

10:30 AM

Location: Lawrence Public Library, 707 Vermont Street

This workshop will examine the development of religious groups' work providing relief efforts to people across the United States when natural or man-made disasters wreak havoc on human habitation. From the recent devastation of Hurricane Katrina, to disasters in the early twentieth century like the San Francisco earthquake in 1906, victims and government agencies have increasingly come to rely on private efforts by religious organizations to provide aid. This workshop will consider the development of this trend, and look at how churches and other religious groups responded to the Dust Bowl on the Great Plains.

Iconic Images

Workshop presented by Ann Dean

11 AM

Location: Watkins Community Museum of History, 1047 Massachusetts Street

Making Murals with Folktales: How Butterflies Were Made

Presented by Wanda Schell

1 PM

Location: St. Luke AME Church, 900 New York Street

Zora Neale Hurston compiled folktales for the Works Progress Administration from her home state of Florida. One folktale tells how the colorful butterflies were created to keep the flowers company and how they came to be called butterflies. In this workshop, children will listen to the vibrant story told by "Zora" and will talk about the tale and compare it to the world they live in today. They will create a mural based on the images in the folktale and related images from their own experiences. The mural will be photographed and displayed on the website.
