

THE MARION COTT CHAUTAUQUA FUND

President Theodore Roosevelt once described Chautauqua as “the most American thing in America.” Under the leadership of Marion Cott, Chautauqua has become a signature program of the Kansas Humanities council.

Marion is retiring in 2006 after 34 years as the KHC Executive Director. The Board of KHC is honoring her with a fund that will continue her legacy.

The Marion Cott Chautauqua Fund will help ensure that chautauquas tour Kansas communities for many more summers to come.

Under a tent at the city park, Kansans have listened to first-person portrayals of historical figures, debated the pros and cons of issues, enjoyed local entertainment, and learned more about the world, our country and ourselves.

Since 1983, more than 150,000 Kansans have participated in chautauquas hosted by 66 Kansas communities.

The KHC Board invites you to continue the tradition of Chautauqua with a gift to the Marion Cott Chautauqua Fund.

We are pleased to announce that an anonymous donor will match gifts to the Marion Cott Chautauqua Fund, dollar for dollar, up to $3,000.
