Kansas Humanities Council Seeks Board Members

TOPEKA - The Kansas Humanities Council (KHC) is currently seeking nominations of Kansans for service on its 22-member board of directors. Nominations for the upcoming selection round are due by March 27, 2009. All nominations are retained in a register of nominees for a three-year period.

The KHC Board of Directors is made up of volunteer members. The board has financial oversight of the organization, takes an active and participatory role in fundraising, sets policy, and promotes awareness of the council. Board members serve for a three-year term, with the possibility of renewable for a second three-year term. Meetings of the full Board are held three times a year in locations across the state.
