

Kansans Tell Their Stories

For five years, KHC's Kansans Tell Their Stories have explored what it means to be Kansan. Many projects involved conducting oral histories to preserve the daily lives of early settlers and immigrants, as well as researching community history and bringing to light the struggles and triumphs of those who claim Kansas as their own.

LAWRENCE

Lawrence Public Library
707 Vermont St.
785/843-3833

October 19 – November 27, 2009

TOPEKA

Great Overland Station
701 N. Kansas Ave.
785/232-5533

December 7, 2009 – January 15, 2010

FORT SCOTT

Gordon Parks Center for Culture and Diversity
Fort Scott Community College
2108 S. Horton
800/874-3722 x515

January 25 – March 5, 2010

SHAWNEE

Shawnee Town
Displayed in: City Hall
11110 Johnson Dr.
913/248-2360

March 15 – April 23, 2010

WICHITA

Wichita Public Library-Central Branch
223 S. Main St.
316/261-8590

May 3 – June 11, 2010

GARDEN CITY

Finney County Historical Society
403 S. 4th St.
620/272-3664

June 21 – July 30, 2010

COLLYER

Collyer Community Alliance
7094 Ainslie Ave.
785/769-5205

August 9 – September 17, 2010

CONCORDIA

National Orphan Train Complex
300 Washington St.
785/243-4471

September 27 – November 5, 2010