Kansas Humanities Council Announces Abraham Lincoln Programs

TOPEKA – The Kansas Humanities Council announces a new Abraham Lincoln Speakers Bureau series to commemorate the Lincoln Bicentennial. Nine program topics offer fresh perspectives on Lincoln’s life, presidency, and legacy. A complete list of programs, booking information, and fees can be found at www.kansashumanities.org.

“The programs are an engaging and informative way for Kansas communities to take part in the Lincoln Bicentennial,” said Julie Mulvihill, Executive Director of the Kansas Humanities Council. “Program participants will examine Lincoln’s life and his legacy in the 21st century through insightful presentations and lively discussions.”

The programs cover a variety of topics including Lincoln’s 1859 visit to Kansas, his law career, his place in history, and the impact of John Brown’s raid on the 1860 election.

The Lincoln Speakers Bureau is presented by the Kansas Humanities Council. A non-profit organization, the Kansas Humanities Council conducts and supports community-based programs, serves as a financial resource through an active grant-making program, and encourages Kansans to participate in their communities.
